

BEAULIEU ROAD PONY SALE
THURSDAY 21st OCTOBER 2010

212 Forward Auctioneer Iain Soutar

A better quality entry of foals and a better day to sell them on than in September with the sun on their backs. Averages up on both the previous sale and the corresponding sale last year, helped by the Foal Show which produced excellent averages of 155 gns for the fillies and 140 gns for the colts. Congratulations to James Gerrelli for winning the Show with his bright bay filly foal which later sold for 400 gns and to Amy Howells for taking the reserve champion with her roan colt foal which sold for 380 gns. Encouragingly both winners also qualified for the young commoners prize. However, top price foal of the day was Mrs J Whitham's chocolate palomino Appaloosa x NF filly foal which raced to 460 gns. Jumbo Seager also achieved 400 gns with his section 3 palomino Welsh Section 'D' x NF colt foal. Not many older ponies on show but the days top price of 600 gns was paid for a very well done Section 3 Cob x 3 y.o. Gelding from Mrs K Adams all the way down from Worcester, whilst Mrs K Pearson's 3 y.o. Section 1 Gelding which had been backed made 550 gns. A big entry of Shetlands met a good firm trade whilst donkeys sold to 450 gns for Raymond Bennett's 4 y.o. Jenny. Our thanks to the New Forest Pony Publicity Group in organising the Show, Claire Moir for judging and the staff and handlers of the New Forest Livestock Society for once again facilitating the free microchipping service which makes life so much better for all concerned. The last sale this year will be on Thursday 25th November.
